

Name:

Moviemaker Tiki_Values Storyboard:

		<h1>Tumanako</h1> <h1>Hope and Aspirations</h1>	<h3>Bringing Shakespeare into the modern world</h3>
Tukua-o-punga logo to introduce the school that these values belong to.	Fades into casting your net picture with	Fades to Tumanako caption with arial font, bold, centred and white text	Fades to first image of student achievement at Tiki – Shakespeare
Fades in with moving effect. 30secs. Stan Walker backing music.	Moving effect and caption to encourage students of Tiki to take charge of their	On black background. Text has moving effect. 30secs	Winners with moving effect. 30secs
Learning. 30secs
Robert Diamond: Te reo the key Teikupunga High School student Robert Diamond is making the talk. Last week he won the Iga Manu Korero o Te Tai Tokerau oratory award for a speech about language being the essence of Maori life. Robert drew inspiration for his speech from the man who gave rise to the annual contest for students speaking in English, Maori and bilingually - the late Sir James Heneare, who said the future for Maori lay in keeping the language and customs alive but moving forward in a modern world. Robert's winning speech in last week's competition hosted by Okahau College was based on Sir James' quote: "Ko te reo Maori te mauri o te mana Maori" or "The language is the life essence to Maori existence". Robert has been a placegetter in every category he's entered in Iga Manu since 2008 but this is his first overall win. 	<h1>Rangatiratanga</h1> <h1>Self Determination</h1>		Patea Maori club; Haka; Prize ceremony;
Fades to second image of student achievement at Tiki – Manu Korero,	Fades to Rangatiratanga caption with arial font, bold, centred and white text	Fades to third image of student achievement at Tiki – scholarship.	Backing music stops, fades into 3 segments with runtime 1 minute 30secs
With moving effect. 30secs	On black background. Text has moving effect. 30secs	Moving effect and transitions. 30secs	of hip hop edited movie.

Name:

Success learners

No other option

By
Miss Edmonds

Fades to "Success learners, no other option" with arial font, bold, centred with yellow text on crimson backing. Text has moving effect. 30secs

Fades into graduation picture with Moving effect. Has a moving effect
Lasts for 30 seconds.

Fades to credits with text effect on black background.